JUSTICE CASEY.

WILLIAM C. CASEY, of New Brighton, was born in Ireland in 1848. He came to America while quite young, and after spending some time in San Francisco and Chicago came to Staten Island and settled in New Brighton, in 1867. He has been a justice of the peace of the town of Castleton for the past fifteen years, and served two terms as justice of the sessions; and has been a member of the Democratic County General Committee for nineteen consecutive years. He has also been a member of the school board of school District No. 4 of Castleton for the past nine years and chairman of the board for six years.

Mr. Casey is one of the best known justices on the Island and has heard and decided many important cases with judicial fairness.
