

JOHN J. FETHERSTON.

JOHN J. FETHERSTON has been a life-long resident of Richmond county. Though engaged in private business he has always been prominently identified with public life.

Mr. Fetherston bears a striking resemblance to Senator David B. Hill. He has been a steadfast Democrat all his life and has served with signal success in the Democratic General Committee for the past twenty years. He was chief of the North Shore Fire Department for one term, was trustee of the first ward of the village of New Brighton for ten years and president of the village for five terms, which office he resigned to accept the unanimous appointment as village treasurer, which office he now holds. Though quiet and unassuming, his straightforward course while in office of trust has made him a host of friends among people of all classes.
