REV. CHARLES F. HULL, pastor of St. Paul's M. E. Church, Tottenville, was born in New York city, April 28th, 1842, and was graduated from the 13th street public school in 1855. He was converted in 1860, and was baptized in the Antioch Baptist Church by the Rev. J. Q. Adams. In 1861, he enlisted in the 5th N. Y. Vols. (Duryeas' Zouaves), and served with that regiment in the Army of the Potomac. In 1864, he received a commission in the navy, and remained in the service until after the fall of Richmond. He then entered Madison (now Colgate) University, and spent four years in study. In 1869, he married Miss Mattie Boyd, of Hamilton, N. Y., and was ordained pastor of the Baptist church in Beekman, N. Y. In 1872, he returned to the University, entered the Theological Seminary, and was graduated with the class of 1873.

The same year he was called to the pastorate of the Baptist church in Northville, N. Y. In 1875, the Mariners' Harbor, S. I., Baptist church invited him to become their pastor, and he remained with them until 1877, when, on account of change in denominational views, he applied for admission, and was received, into the Newark Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church. Since that date his appointments have been as follows: 1877, Mt. Hope, N. J.; 1878-80, Woodrow, S. I.; 1881, Otisville, N. Y.; 1882-84, Rockland Lake, N. Y.; 1885-87, Bayonne, N. J.; 1888-90, Rahway, N. J. In 1891 he was appointed to St. Paul's, Tottenville, of which church he still remains the pastor.
